ADVISES THE USE OF PLANT JUICE

Prominent Fort Worth Citizen Has Tested This Remedy and Recommends it.

Here is a brief letter from Mr. W. H. S. Cogburn who is floor manager at The Fair Dry Goods Department Store in Fort Worth. He tells volumes and will interest many.

"I was persuaded to try Plant Juice for rheumatism and stomach troubles and to my surprise found relief at once. After suffering for several years and trying many remedies with but little result, I am at last well. I strongly advise the use of Plant Juice by all that suffer with either rheumatism or stomach troubles."

People who have indigestion, palpitation, spots before the eyes, dizziness, sleeplessness, headaches, nervousness, who are suffering from deranged liver, kidneys or blood will find Plant Juice will bring relief and a permanent cure. Plant Juice is purely vegetable, made from the roots, leaves, bark and bloom of medicinal plants. It is nature's own remedy. For sale at Kelly & Pollard's Drug Store—Advertisement.

ARREST SHIPPING CLERK AND BUYER

Third Man, Alleged to Be Wanted in Connection With Grocery Shipments to Deming, Held in Juarez.

T. C. McCamey, shipping clerk of the James A. Dick wholesale grocery house, and Harry Martin, alias H. G. McKee, were arrested by city detectives Sunday afternoon and lodged in the city jail. Charles H. McPhail, also an employee of the house, is in the Juarez jail. He was arrested by the Juarez authorities Monday morning on instructions of police chief L. N. Davis. Approximately $600 worth of groceries which had been loaded in a box car destined for Deming, N. M., were returned to the wholesale house, following the arrest of the three men.

According to the chief of police, Martin appeared at the James A. Dick company's place Saturday afternoon and purchased $150 worth of groceries, for which he paid. The groceries, the suspicion is, were loaded into the car under the supervision of McCamey, the shipping clerk of the company. The car was then billed to Deming, but before it could get out, James A. Dick discovered the situation and called the police and had it held up. The detectives searched El Paso Sunday for McPhail, the third man alleged to be implicated, but were unable to find him. The police of Juarez were notified that he was wanted on this side. Monday morning the Juarez officials phoned chief Davis that the man had been arrested in Juarez, also that he then refused to come to this side. Efforts will be made to bring him over.

JUVENILE COURT FOR GODSEY GIRL

Effort to Have Her Transferred as "Delinquent Child"—Stanton Is Representing Her Now.

Ellen Godsey, the prosecuting witness in the Bill Caples case, is a delinquent child, according to Mrs. J. Egan, county probation officer, who wants the juvenile court to take charge of what is due.

Monday morning the girl came into the 24th district court, holding to the arm of Mrs. C. H. Webster, matron of the county jail. The girl was smiling and appeared to be both amused and pleased. She was seated at her seat where the prisoners generally sit in the court room. M. W. Stanton, who is one of the attorneys representing her in the perjury indictment case, walked up and shook hands with her. Judge Dan M. Johnson, 9 of the court, announced that he had an affidavit of Mrs. Egan to the effect that the girl was under 15 years of age.

The affidavit was handed to Stanton, Leander Dale and Charles Owen, representing the girl. After they read it, they asked for time to consider the matter and make investigations. Judge Jackson granted them until 2 o'clock. At the hearing Monday afternoon, district attorney W. W. Bridges interposed objections to Stanton, Weeks and Dale in appearing in the case, on the grounds that they were attorneys for "Bill" Caples. Judge Jackson postponed the hearing until Tuesday morning to give the district attorney time to present his objections in writing.

FALL HATS ON EXHIBIT AT CALISHER'S IS A MOST ATTRACTIVE SHOWING

Beautiful New Dress Goods in All the Newest Colors, Hats in the Latest Shapes and Trimming, Newest Corsets, Newest Dress Goods, Laces and Other Things for Women Artistically Exhibited.

In a setting of harmonious colorings, a triumph of artistic decoration, the exquisite fabrics and beautiful costumes of the fashion exhibit at Calisher's fall opening form color notes in a harmonious whole that make a veritable color symphony to appeal to the highest artistic sense.

From the blending and combination of colors in the window display to the upper floors, every color arrangement displays an appreciation for the harmonious and effective, and denotes the artistic touch.

In all the displays, the prevailing colors that are positively the newest notes in fashion's decree—Copenhagen, midnight and the soft shades of blue, terra cotta and the red shades from cerise to mahogany, the rich tones of the new purples and the pastel tones of greens—are so arranged that they are a delight to behold.

The interior of the entire store, as well as the principle window displays, carries out a color motif of Copenhagen, Copenhagen lace festooning being effectively draped in graceful lines over the ceilings, accentuated against the white of the ceiling and columns. The extent of the decoration is realized in the use of about 6000 yards of material.

An additional color note is a profusion of fresh goldenrod blossoms, their foliage tinged by autumn tints, 10,000 stalks of this beautiful autumn flower being employed to all its brightness to the light opening. Perched and winged over the festoonings, over the draperies, the counters and show cases, are thousands of butterflies, their radiant tints wings open as if ready for instant flight, adding a daintiness and charm to the decorations. These butterflies and creatures were made especially for the opening, and are all hand painted, representing in the color of their wings the prevailing color, favorite shades of the season, besides being in themselves the very latest thing in artistic motifs.

That this fall fashion exhibit should be one of the finest of its kind, every detail has been done in the "Calisher way" with no sparing of pains or expense. Prizes were offered for the department making the best appearance in the window, the best use of the interest cooperation of the Calisher employer a big part of the success of the exhibit is due.

The window draperies show wonderful beauty of color and finish in a wide range of materials. The broadened materials are especially featured in one window; cut broadened velvets with combinations of the newest color fabrics are shown in the prevailing Copenhagen, with, as a contrasting color, a single drapery of the new saddle tan velvet.

Another window features the most exquisitely dainty Chantilly and Guipure lace, the new crepe silk and pastel shades in crepe silk and broadened crepes and chiffons. Street and afternoon suits and wraps, all in the latest styles.

DEATHS AND BURIALS

DAVID M. SMITH, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, died at his home in Val Verde addition, Monday morning at 4 o'clock. Surviving him are his parents, three brothers, Joseph, and Louis, and a sister, Mrs. Benjamin, living in Des Moines, Ia. and two sisters, Mrs. Philip Ackerman of Toledo, Ohio, from which city he came to El Paso three years ago. Funeral services were held at the residence Monday afternoon, and interment was made in Concordia cemetery.

GEORGE A. NOONAN

delit shades of blue, are on display in one window.

Down the center aisle, the newest fall fabrics are gracefully draped, particularly novel feature of the display being the use of hand painted pictures, many of them drawings from the "Salon des Artistes Independents, of Paris," illustrating how the materials may most effectively be combined into costumes.

One of the very newest dress materials is attracting much attention on the dress materials counter. It is the Fiacome Charmeuse in cherry brocade with stencil pattern of pastel blues, yellows and greens. Not only is this material one of the most beautiful of this season's new features, but is also one of the most expensive, at $4 a yard.

Among the most attractive of the departments is the lace department. Exquisite filmy shadow laces, the new Caraquele alover lace, Parisian beaded and embroidered shadow bands, and butterfly garnitures of rhinestones, beads and pearls are so arranged that the show cases have the most beautifully displays to be seen.

Everything frilly and dainty for neckwear for the fastidious woman is displayed in the neckwear department, the laces being shown on backgrounds of blue with big satin bows of the same shade ornamenting the counter.

In the ready to wear millinery and undergarment department on the second floor, the same color scheme is preserved. Costumes on display of peachblow, moonlight blue, terra cotta and the pastel shades of purple blend most harmoniously in the general color plan.

In the millinery department, the latest creations of the best milliners are displayed in an attractive arrangement of grouping that has together in color to colors among some of the most striking of the new hats are those of black and black and white, which are simple and simplicity that is highly effective.

In order to appear best in the new gowning, Calisher's is especially featuring the newest and best of the front lace models. "La Camille."

The underwear department presents everything fascinatingly dainty for the women of particular taste, in the first of embroidered silks and crepes and the finest of bewitching lingerie.

This year, more than ever before, Calisher's are offering serviceable garments at attractive prices that come within the reach of everyone.

Altogether the entire display, while reflecting in every department the very newest of the season's style offerings in the greatest beauty and variety, show such appreciation of color combinations and such an artistic arrangement that it makes the display a record one, it being not only the most beautiful but also the most beautiful that has ever been seen in El Paso.—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

"IVANHOE" AT THE ALAMO FIRST

Today the great classic production, "Ivanhoe," is being presented at the Alamo. It is a true pictorial production of Sir Walter Scott's famous novel. The picture is in three parts and every scene is a thriller and will be shown to El Pasoans today under great advantage on account of the superior screen and expert projection.

This play is an education to everybody and a revelation to all. It is secured at a tremendous cost and was staged in Europe. It is the only genuine thriller being shown anywhere in the United States. See the magnificent acting, the terrific battle scenes and the superb and lavish costumes.

You will not get a chance to see this season's greatest attraction under better advantages.

The Alamo's ventilation is perfect and the surroundings clean. And above all; there positively will be no advance in the regular prices. Remember this point: You get our features at the same regular admission price always.—Advertisement.

AT THE PRINCESS THEATER

Today's program at the Princess is as follows: "The Lesson," a drama wherein the central theme is the trust of an unspontaneous maiden, and a timely rescue, wherein a prepossessing youth plays an important part. "The Prima Donna's Cat," a comedy, will give you no end of enjoyment. The musical "The Graters," a musical drama, will certainly give you a good run for your money. The subjects of this program are of the highest quality, and it is very realistic and up to date. The spotlight songs by Harry Prince are proving a great pleasure. None are better in this role. Miss Lola Carro, as accompanist, helps make a great program.—Advertisement.

"TESS" AT THE UNIQUE

Lovers of emotional plays were given a rare treat yesterday when Mrs. Fluke played the leading role in Tess, was shown at the Unique theater. Hundreds thronged this popular playhouse during the evening, and evening to witness this greatest of all motion picture plays.

Mrs. Fluke, one of the world's greatest emotional actresses, is shown to advantage in the play. Her acting has made the play one of the most popular dramas of recent years. Those who have read Thomas Hardy's book can form some idea of the play but even those who have seen Mrs. Fluke cannot picture her wonderful acting. The picture is the greatest ever produced in El Paso. It is the first of a series of high class dramas that will be produced by Charles Frohman and shown at the Unique.—Advertisement.

AT THE GRECIAN TODAY

The admirers of Warren Kerrigan will have an opportunity to see him today at the Grecian in an entirely new role, the "Adventures of Jacques," an elaborate picture in two reels. This is a magnificent production, gorgeously costumed, massively staged and superbly acted. The scenes are laid in California's most beautiful spots. Warren Kerrigan as "Jacques" is simply immense. Don't miss it. On the same bill is the "Mutual Weekly" with the latest illustrated events, and the newest fashions for women in New York and Paris.—Advertisement.

PATHE WEEKLY AT BIJOU

This week's Pathe Weekly to be shown at the Bijou is the best seen for some time. Fifty flying machines starting from the ground at one time in France, snowballing on Mt. Tacoma, and 250,000 business men working on Missouri roads are all worth watching. Also the Bloodless Bull Fight held in Denver, which provides both thrills and laughter.—Advertisement.
